

I'm rather concerned about your proposal 02-33 as it pertains to wireless Internet Service Providers. As a small (3 employee) wireless Internet Service Provider, burdening my company with collecting Universal Service Fund (USF) monies for distribution to the Incumbent phone companies seems totally out of line and would create a severe hardship for my company.

Please consider exempting wireless Internet Service Providers, or small Internet Service Providers in general from this requirement.